DEPOT NOTIFICATION RE: Mix/Concentrate/Base Containers

Attention depot operators and staff,

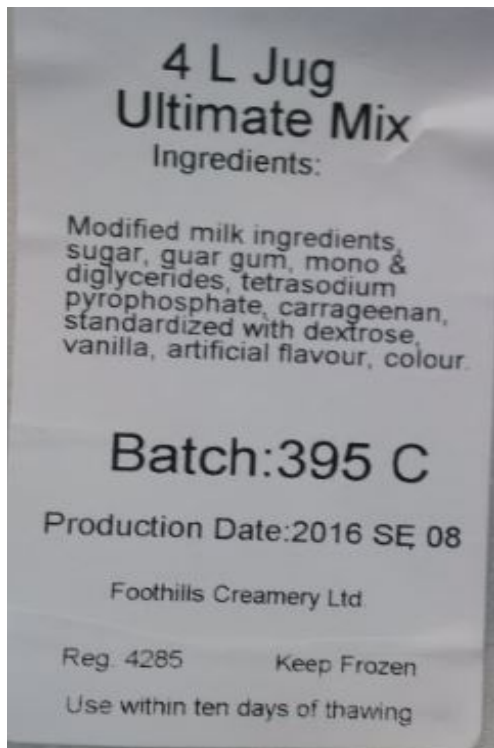

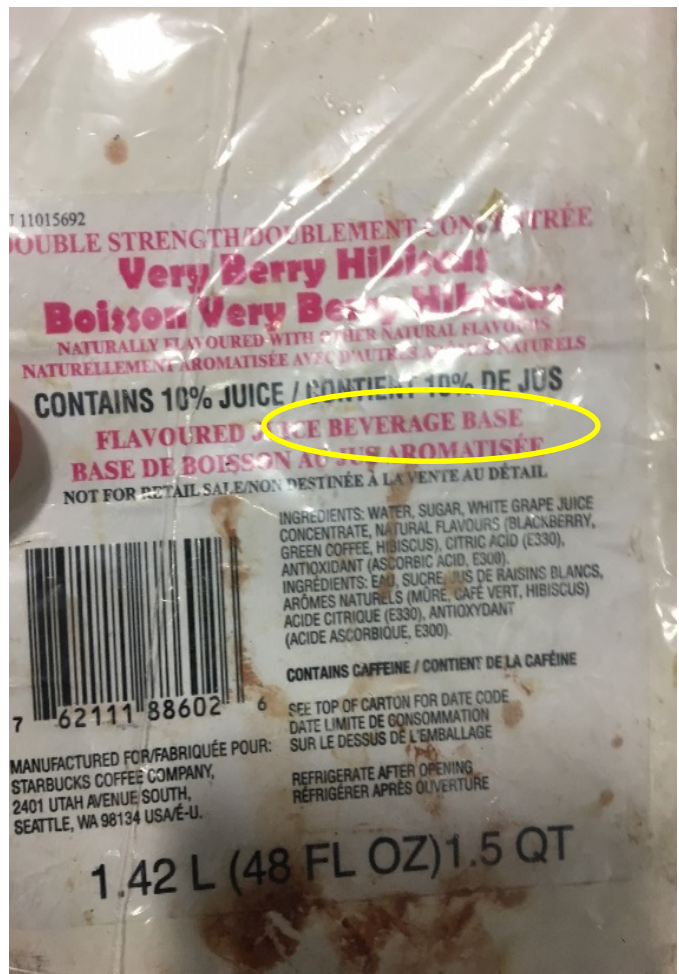

This notice is to inform you that frozen mixes, concentrates and beverage bases are not considered ready-to-serve and are not registered beverage containers. Beverages that include the word “mix” but are ready-to-serve (do not need to be thawed or mixed with another product prior to being consumed) are included. The images included in this notification will help you differentiate between ready-to-serve mixes and mixes that are not ready-to-serve.
